Headquartered in Salt Lake City, Utah, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, or LDS, was founded by Joseph Smith in the 1820s and today has more than 16 million members worldwide. You can find their members (known socially as Mormons) living in more than half of the states in the USA. They rely on the Book of Mormon which was dictated by Smith and published in 1830. Currently in Salt Lake City, there is only one Christian church for every ten thousand people. Among the Christians in Utah, only three percent are evangelical.

All Nations' missionary family, the Swanks, has been living in Utah building relationships with the Mormons since 2019. They will soon be joined by the Topping family. Together, they will engage in business as ministry, local church partnerships and disciple making. Their hope and vision are to see locals in Utah and ex-Mormons making disciples and sharing their faith with their community.
