MOROCCAN ARAB PEOPLE

Join us in praying for this neglected people group!

MOROCCO

- Called: Moroccan Arab
- Total population: 25 million
- Language: Moroccan Arabic/Darija (main); French (secondary)
- Main Religion: Islam

Morocco is in the northwestern most part of Africa and overlooks both the Mediterranean Sea and the Atlantic Ocean. The Moroccan Arab people located throughout Morocco are considered unreached. Among them, there are hardly any followers of Jesus and no known movements of Christ-followers. In the area where All Nations' team lives, there are few Christian workers and only around 60 believers.

All Nations' team has been living and working among the Moroccan Arab people since 2018. They have been focused on sowing seeds of the Gospel, equipping and discipling local followers, as well as sustainability through business development. Their vision is to see healthy disciples making disciples, leading to an indigenous church planting movement in their area. They also hope to see Moroccan Arab believers following Christ wholeheartedly, with lives transformed, and taking the Good News to the least reached and neglected in the greater region.
